--The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address--

The Appeal Brief filed on 01 November 2006 is defective for failure to comply with one or more provisions of 37 CFR 41.37.

3. ☐ At least one amendment has been filed subsequent to the final rejection, and the brief does not contain a statement of the status of each such amendment (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(iv)).
4. ☐ (a) The brief does not contain a concise explanation of the subject matter defined in each of the independent claims involved in the appeal, referring to the specification by page and line number and to the drawings, if any, by reference characters; and/or (b) the brief fails to: (1) identify, for each independent claim involved in the appeal and for each dependent claim argued separately, every means plus function and step plus function under 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph, and/or (2) set forth the structure, material, or acts described in the specification as corresponding to each claimed function with reference to the specification by page and line number, and to the drawings, if any, by reference characters (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(v)).
5. ☐ The brief does not contain a concise statement of each ground of rejection presented for review (37 CFR 41.37(c)(1)(vi)).

Non-Compliant Appeal Brief

Applicant's Appeal Brief, filed 01 November 2006, does not comply with the requirements of 37 CFR §41.37(c). In the Summary of the Claimed Subject Matter, specifically on page 2, line 6, to page 5, line 5, Applicant presents a discussion of the specification, rather than the claims, along with arguments attempting to refute the final rejection mailed 14 June 2006. This is wholly inappropriate for the Summary of Claimed Subject Matter and more properly belongs in the section reserved for Arguments (see 37 CFR §41.37(c)(v) and 37 CFR §41.37(c)(vii)).
